- 11.1 The Customer is obliged to immediately notify and submit to the Bank any changes to any information or data of the Customer, including but not limited to changes in name, address, telephone number, information or data contained in proof of identity (e-KTP or passport, whichever is relevant according to the Customer's resident status) and/or TIN (or other proof of tax identity, specifically for non-resident Indonesian Customers), information related to the Customer's work/business and other matters that deviate or differ from the Customer's information or data previously provided by the Customer to the Bank, either information or data delivered directly physically or through electronic media.
- 11.2 In the event that there is a change in the Customer's data or information, the Customer hereby authorizes the Bank and/or the party appointed by the Bank to update or adjust any information or data of the Customer stored in the Bank's system.

12 DORMANT ACCOUNTS

- 12.1 At the Bank's discretion, the Bank shall have the right to change the status of the Account from an active Account to an inactive (dormant) Account, if there is no banking transaction activity carried out by the Customer in a period of 375 (three hundred seventy-five) consecutive calendar days.
- 12.2 During the dormant status of the Account, the Customer cannot perform any debiting or crediting transactions, with the exception of transactions related to the following fees can still be carried out: (a) debiting of Account administration fees, including dormant Account administration fees; (b) payment of interest; (c) payment of tax on interest; (d) stamp duty for current accounts; (e) debiting of accounts through clearing or disbursement of receipts made by third parties (parties who receive payments from the Customer) for Rupiah Current Accounts; (f) debiting of rental renewal fee of Safe Deposit Box (SDB); and (g) debiting related to any obligations of the Customer that are still owed to or through the Bank.

12.3 For dormant Accounts, the Bank shall have the right to charge the administration fee that will be charged to the Account in an amount determined in accordance with the policies applicable to the Bank with prior notice through the Bank's office, the Bank's website at www.ocbc.id or other media determined by the Bank, while taking into account the applicable laws and regulations.

12.4 To reactivate a dormant Account, the Customer must come to the nearest Bank branch to complete and sign the Account activation form in front of a Bank officer. Especially for Customers who have a Joint Account "And", the activation of the Account must be carried out jointly by the Joint Account holders, while for Joint Account "Or", the activation of the Account, can be carried out by one of the Joint Account holders. Reactivation of dormant Accounts, except for Joint "And" Accounts, can also be carried out by debiting transactions such as cash withdrawals, overbooking, payments, purchases and transfers through ATMs, Internet Banking (including OCBC Business) or OCBC mobile applications.

12.5 After the dormant Account is activated, the Customer is required to make transactions using the Account.

12.6 The Customer agrees that in the event that the Customer's dormant Account has a zero balance (IDR 0), the Bank has the right to close the Account without prior notice to the Customer.

13 ACCOUNT TRANSFER/GUARANTEE

Unless with prior written approval from the Bank and in accordance with the terms and conditions determined by the Bank, the Customer may not transfer or pledge to serve as collateral for the benefit of other parties or carry out other related matters in connection with the Account either in part or in its entirety.

14. OVERDRAFT ON ACCOUNT

14.1 The Customer undertakes to ensure that there is no overdraft on the Account, even temporarily, unless authorized by the Bank or with the prior approval of the Bank and such approval shall be subject to the terms and conditions determined by the Bank.

14.2 Debit balances on the Account shall be settled promptly by the Customer. The Customer at the request of the Bank shall pay all interest and fees on the debit balance which shall be calculated at the interest rate determined by the Bank from time to time and such interest shall be calculated on a daily basis and charged at the end of each month or at any time determined by the Bank from time to time.

15. RIGHT TO DEBIT RELATED TO TAX

15.1 If the Bank is required by law, provisions in Indonesia or regulation(s) to which the Bank is subject under an agreement to withhold tax, the Customer hereby authorizes the Bank to make such withholding from the relevant Account(s).

15.2 The Customer agrees that if the tax must be paid in a currency different from the currency of the Account, the Bank is authorized to convert to the required currency using the prevailing exchange rate at the Bank and the cost of such conversion shall be borne by the Customer.

16 REJECTION AND SUSPENSION OF TRANSACTION

16.1 The Customer agrees that the Bank has the right to refuse or not carry out the Instruction if (i) the Instruction is not in accordance with applicable laws, regulations or legislation, including laws on financial crimes, Corruption Eradication Law, Money Laundering Law applicable in Indonesia and internationally and compliance with the prevention of financing for, among others, terrorists and sanctioned parties; or (ii) the Instruction will cause the amount of such payment to exceed the credit balance in the Account; or (iii) the Bank in its judgment considers that the Instruction given by the Customer cannot be verified. In the event that it is necessary, in relation to the provisions of this paragraph, the Bank shall have the right (i) to request to provide all information required by the Bank to comply with such laws and regulations including but not limited to the name, address, age, sex, personal identification information, income, occupation, assets, debts, sources of wealth, purpose of opening an Account, investment objectives, any financial plans or other relevant financial information of the Customer; (ii) to request the Customer to provide updated data on such information to the Bank; (iii) to suspend and examine any payment orders and other information or communications sent to or by the Customer, or on behalf of the Customer through the Bank's system; and (iv) if necessary, in relation to potential terrorist financing, the Bank shall conduct further investigations to determine whether the names appearing in any transactions made or to be made by the Customer through his/her Account are those of terrorists.

16.2 The Customer agrees and acknowledges that, to the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations:

(a) The Bank reserves the right to refuse to execute Instructions for a transaction on an Account; or;
(b) The Bank reserves the right not to send an activation code, OTP, or any other code that serves the same purpose; or

(c) The Bank reserves the right to withhold funds in the Account and to restrict the Customer's right to withdraw from an Account, if there is any doubt, discrepancy in Instructions, OTP code error, disputes between the Customer and another party causing Instruction conflicts, or suspicion of criminal activity indications including but not limited to counterfeit, fraud, invalidity or irregularity regarding the Instructions/transaction of the Account, or as a follow-up to a report of suspected criminal activity related to the invalidity or irregularity of the Instructions/transaction on the account or as a follow-up to a report of suspected criminal activity related to the inaccuracy of data/information submitted by the Customer to the Bank.

16.3 In connection with the conditions as referred to in Article 16.1 and/or Article 16.2 above, the Customer agrees that the Bank shall have the right:

(i) to suspend or terminate either temporarily or permanently including extending the suspension, or refuse to process part or all of the Instruction/ transaction either on the Bank's own initiative or at the request/instruction of the competent authority; and/or

(ii) to block or withhold funds in the Account including to debit the Account and limit the Customer's right to withdraw funds or to put hold on the Customer's Account activities (including other Accounts owned by the Customer at the Bank) or not to provide/limit access authority to the Bank's facilities/services (including safe deposit boxes); and/or

(iii) to fulfill its obligations related to Customer information to the authorities in accordance with applicable rules and regulations; and/or

(iv) to know information on the source and purpose of the use of funds of the Customer who owns the Account or who is authorized or the owner of the funds, related to transactions that are considered unusual or not in accordance with the profile; and/or

(v) to conduct a blocking as a follow-up to a report of alleged criminal acts, revoke the blocking and/or debit the Account to return funds to another Customer's Account at the request of an interested party if based on the results of the Bank's investigation it is suspected or it is known that the data or information submitted by the Customer to the Bank is incorrect; and/or

(vi) to close the Customer's Account.

16.4 The Customer shall release the Bank from any loss (directly and including loss of profit or interest) or damage suffered by any party arising from any action taken by the Bank under this Article 16.

16.5 Subject to applicable laws and regulations, the Bank may notify the Customer regarding the refusal or suspension of transactions as governed in this Article.

17 COMPENSATION/CALCULATION

17.1 The Customer shall grant full rights, power and authority to the Bank, at any time to block/disburse and/or debit the Customer's Account or the Customer's joint account in all branches available at the Bank to pay off/pay all obligations or debts of the Customer that are owed and payable that exist now or in the future. The Customer hereby waives all rights to file objections or challenges in any form and for any reason whatsoever against the blocking, disbursement and debiting carried out by the Bank.

17.2 The Customer and the Bank hereby waive and declare that the provisions in Article 1427 of the Indonesian Civil Code do not apply, as long as the article requires that in order to be able to compensate/calculate debt a receivable must have been payable/matured.

17.3 The Bank will notify the Customer regarding the blocking or debiting as mentioned in Article 17.1 above.

18. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

18.1 Neither the Bank nor any of its employees or agents shall be liable for any act or failure to act, unless caused by the Bank's willful negligence or failure.

- 18.2 Without limiting the foregoing, the Bank shall not be liable for any costs, losses, damages, liabilities or consequences suffered or incurred by the Customer due to the following circumstances:
- (a) The Bank acts in good faith on the Customer's Instruction;
 - (b) The operation of the Account is hampered or disrupted for reasons beyond the Bank's authority;
 - (c) any delay or failure of delivery or communication facilities of party(ies) other than the Bank;
 - (d) Funds credited to or debited from the Account are reduced in value due to taxes, depreciation or unavailability due to restrictions (arising from any cause whatsoever) on conversion, expropriation, delivery, voluntary, forcible taking, exercise of governmental or military power, war, strike or other causes beyond the control of the Bank;
 - (e) Lost cheques/ giro bilyet which are not due to the Bank's fault;
 - (f) the Bank's rejection of the Customer's Instruction because there are differences in the Customer's signature and data stored in the Bank;
 - (g) Customer's negligence, failure or criminal act;
- 18.3 The Bank shall not be liable for any loss, damage or expense suffered or incurred by the Customer (whether due to forgery of signature, material change of withdrawal instruction or any other reason) which is not caused by the Bank's fault. If the Bank has debited the Customer's Account based on a request for withdrawal of funds or payment with a forged signature of the Customer or authorized person, the Bank shall not be liable to cancel the debit or pay compensation to the Customer in connection with the funds that have been debited.
- 18.4 The Customer must be aware of the exchange rate risk inherent in foreign currency deposits, in particular a decrease in the exchange rate of the foreign currency compared to the Customer's preferred currency will reduce (or eliminate) the Customer's income or revenue in the foreign currency deposit.
- 18.5 The Customer hereby agrees to release and discharge the Bank from all claims, demands, losses, damages, or costs that may arise now and, in the future, provided that it is not caused by the fault or gross negligence of the Bank for:
- i. misunderstanding, damage, delay, loss or misdelivery of orders and communications, whether by post, telephone, telegram, telex or facsimile or any other communication media;
 - ii. limited use or unavailability or non-payment of funds due to foreign exchange restrictions, unavailability of the foreign currency withdrawn, or other causes beyond the control of the Bank;
 - iii. an Account statement or Bank notification sent to the Customer is received or read or misused by an unauthorized party to the Account;
 - iv. token and PIN are known by other people/parties;
 - v. transfer of OCBC ATM card to another person/party;
 - vi. losses or claims arising from or relating to goods handover transactions carried out by the Customer at the merchant;
 - vii. the inauthenticity, invalidity, incompleteness of filling or other aspects of the documents received by the Bank from the Customer, as well as if the documents prove rights of ownership to the goods listed in the documents. The Bank shall not be responsible for the party issuing or endorsing such documents, including but not limited to the authenticity, validity or correctness of the authority and signature contained in such documents.

19 INDIVIDUAL ACCOUNT

If the Customer is an individual Customer, the Bank shall only recognize his/her heirs in the event of the Customer's death. After receiving notification of the Customer's death, to protect the interests of the Customer, the Bank shall have the right to put a hold on the Account until the Customer's heirs provide and complete the documents required by the Bank in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bank. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Customer agrees that the Bank shall have the right to request proof of heirs in the form of documents acceptable to the Bank and other evidence required by the Bank, so that the Bank can recognize the rightful heirs in accordance with applicable legal provisions.

20 JOINT ACCOUNT

- 20.1 Should an Account(s) be(are) opened in the name of two or more individuals ("Joint Account"), those individuals shall be jointly and individually liable for any obligations arising from the Joint Account, and each reference to “Customer” in these Terms and Conditions or any other document relating to the Joint Account shall be construed/read as referring to the owners of the Joint Account, both jointly and individually, with the conditions:

- (a) If the Joint Account is operated with a single signature authority (Joint Account “Or”), instructions from any one of the Joint Account holders will be accepted by the Bank and such instructions shall bind the other Joint Account holders.
- (b) If the Joint Account is operated with joint signature authority (Joint Account “And”), then any Instructions given must be in writing and must be provided by the Account holders in one or more Instructions, all of which constitute one and the same document.
- (c) The owners of the Joint Account are liable for any consequences and risks that may arise in connection with the opening and execution of transactions related to the Joint Account, and the Bank shall not provide compensation and/or liability in any form to the Customer or any party for claims and losses caused by disputes/conflicts (if any), occurring among the Customers forming/applying for the opening of the Joint Account.
- (d) Upon receipt of notice of the death of one of the Joint Account holders, the Customer agrees that the Bank has the right to:
 - i. freeze the Account and withhold all the credit balance until a successor of the Joint Account holder provides the act or documents required by the Bank in accordance with applicable laws; or
 - ii. pay the credit balance in the Joint Account to the surviving account holder(s) and the heir(s) (deceased customer), and if there is more than one surviving account holder, then to such account holders and heirs, provided that, before such payment is made, any debt of one of the Joint Account holders to the Bank will be settled using the credit balance of the Joint Account.
- (e) The Joint Account holders and their heirs, together with the Joint Account holders, agree to release the Bank from all claims, costs, expenses, losses, and damages, including those arising from:
 - i. Payment of the credit balance in the Joint Account to the surviving account holders as described above;
 - ii. Freezing of the Joint Account and withholding of the credit balance in the Joint Account as described above; and
 - iii. Disputes between the Joint Account holders and individual representatives of deceased Joint Account holders.

20.2 The rules for the issuance and utilization of the OCBC ATM Card for Joint Accounts shall be subject to the general terms and conditions applicable to the use of OCBC ATM/Debit Cards, which are accessible on the Bank's website at www.ocbc.id.

21 ACCOUNT(S) IN THE NAME OF A COMPANY

In the event that an Account(s) is opened in the name of a company, the Bank allows changes in authorized signatories but the Bank is under no obligation to accept such changes unless the Bank is satisfied that such changes have been completed with the documentation required by the Bank to make such changes. In the event of liquidation of the company, funds credited to the Account may only be withdrawn and paid to the liquidator of the company or receiver or other authorized person or body appointed in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

22 DEPOSITS

22.1 The Customer agrees that the Bank shall have the right to (i) refuse to accept deposits or limit the amount that may be deposited and return all or part of the amount sent by the Customer to the Bank for deposit, and (ii) reject deposits in Foreign Currencies.

22.2 Each deposit placed by the Customer will be made in such a manner and the Customer shall comply with the terms and conditions and procedures determined by the Bank from time to time in relation to the Deposit. Proof of deposit will be validated in accordance with the applicable terms and conditions and procedures by an officer of the Bank.

22.3 Deposits placed with funds originating from cheques/giro bilyet, can only be placed in deposits after the funds have been received by the Bank.

23 DOCUMENTARY COLLECTION

23.1 All credited cheques/giro bilyet will be accepted by the Bank as agent for documentary collection, and the Bank may send such cheques/giro bilyet for documentary collection to the issuer, the drawee or any other paying party for handling in accordance with their own regulations. Foreign currency cheques/giro bilyet and postal and money orders received for documentary collection will be credited only after payment has been received by the Bank.

23.2 Any remittance of funds whether by post, telegraph or electronic or negotiable instruments acceptable for credit shall be irrevocable until the funds have been received by the Bank. If such remittance is cancelled for any reason, the Customer's Account will be debited immediately and the Bank will withdraw any interest calculated or credited in respect thereof.

23.3 The Customer agrees that the Bank may refuse to accept documentary collection of cheques/giro bilyet and other instruments withdrawn on third parties. - 30.4 The Customer agrees that the Bank may record any and all electronic communications, among others through telephone, email, or other instruments between the Bank and the Customer related to the Bank's Products and/or Services. The Customer agrees and authorizes the recording and monitoring of such electronic communication. The Customer realizes and agrees that for each Customer Instruction submitted through electronic means regulated in these Terms and Conditions, the Bank shall have the right but is not obliged to verify and identify the Customer before carrying out the Instructions from the Customer.
- 30.5 The Customer hereby authorizes, guarantees and accepts full responsibility for every Instruction submitted through electronic means given by the Customer to the Bank or received by the Bank, whether the Instruction is given by the Customer, or a person deemed authorized by the Customer.
- 30.6 The Customer understands, acknowledges and accepts each transaction and all consequences arising from each instruction and communication carried out in the manner as described above, and therefore the Customer releases the Bank from any and all losses, claims, actions, proceedings, lawsuits, requests, costs and expenses of any kind and at any time experienced or incurred in any form and manner, arising from and/or as a result of instructions and communications that the Customer submits to the Bank provided that the Bank has processed the transaction in accordance with the agreed methods mentioned above.

31 APPLICATION OF OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS

If there are separate terms and conditions related to Services and/or Products provided by the Bank to the Customer, then such terms and conditions shall become an integral and an inseparable part hereof. In the event of a difference in definitions, the terms and conditions set forth in these Terms and Conditions shall prevail.

32 COMMUNICATION

- 32.1 For the purpose of communication or correspondence, the Customer can contact Tanya OCBC service or other numbers notified by the Bank from time to time. In the event that there is a change in the Customer's address/e-mail address/telephone number/mobile phone without prior notification from the Customer, the Bank is not responsible if the communication sent is not received by the Customer for the reasons mentioned above. Therefore, if there is a change in data, the Customer must notify and submit the change to the Bank and such change is only valid if it has been received and/or approved by the Bank.
- 32.2 Any report, advice, confirmation, notice, announcement, request and all correspondence by the Bank in accordance with these Terms and Conditions ("Correspondence") will be sent to the Customer:
- (a) if the Customer is an individual, then it is sent to the Customer or the Customer's individual representative concerned. If the Customer is a company or not an individual, then it is sent to the company official or person authorized to represent the Customer;
 - (b) by sending it to the Customer or one of the officials or persons authorized to represent the Customer (whichever is relevant) at the Customer's most recently registered address with the Bank; or
 - (c) through facsimile or electronic mail (email) addressed to the facsimile or electronic mail (email) address of the Customer recorded at the Bank.
- 32.3 The Bank shall not be liable for any error, delay, or delivery of instructions or communication problems resulting from the use of postal services, facsimile, electronic mail (email), telephone, or telex or any other means or communication between the Customer and the Bank and between the Bank and the Customer, except those caused by the Bank's actual fault.

33 AMENDMENTS

At any time at its discretion and with notice to the Customer at least 30 (thirty) Business Days in advance, in the manner referred to below, the Bank may (i) amend one or more of these Terms and Conditions or (ii) permanently terminate the provision of a Service or Product or Account provided for in these Terms and Conditions by:

- (a) publishing the change in the Account Statement sent to the Customer; or
- (b) posting a notice of such change at a branch office of the Bank; or
- (c) by other written notice; or
- (d) through electronic media; or
- (e) through other means of communication determined by the Bank at its sole discretion, with due observance of the prevailing laws and regulations.

If the Customer continues to use the Service or Product or Account after such notification, or there is no objection from the Customer during the 30 (thirty) Business Days period, the Customer shall be deemed to have agreed and accepted such amendments.

For the purpose of termination of the Service or Product or in accordance with these Terms and Conditions, the Bank and the Customer hereby waive the provisions of Article 1266 of the Indonesian Civil Code and thus no stipulation or court decision shall be required for its enforceability.

34 FORCE MAJEURE

The Customer agrees that the Bank shall be exempted from all responsibilities as a result of events or causes beyond the Bank's power or ability including but not limited to natural disasters, fire, war, riots, unrests, malfunctioning equipment, systems or transmissions, power disruptions, telecommunications disruptions, government policies and/or authorized agencies, failures in the application of new technology, and other events or causes beyond the Bank's power or ability (Force Majeure).

related to the Customer's tax obligations other than in Indonesia and guarantee the accuracy of any information provided in the documents and/or forms. If the Customer's status changes to become a FATCA and/or CRS Subject, the Customer must no later than 30 (thirty) calendar days after the change in status submit a written notification to the Bank.

35.2 The Customer/prospective Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Customer/prospective Customer information will be forwarded to the authorities both the Financial Services Authority (OJK) and the Indonesian tax authorities.

35.3 The Customer/prospective Customer acknowledges and agrees that if the Bank shall have the right to refuse business relationships and/or refuse new transactions related to financial accounts if the Customer/prospective Customer is not willing to fulfill the identification procedures applicable to the Bank related to CRS.

36 SEVERABILITY

In the event that a provision of these Terms and Conditions becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable based on the provisions of the applicable laws and regulations (including and not limited to the provisions of the Financial Services Authority (OJK), Bank Indonesia and so on), then (i) the validity, legality and enforceability of the other provisions in these Terms and Conditions will not, in any way, be affected, reduced or disturbed, remain valid and binding for the Parties; and (ii) The Customer hereby agrees that the Bank shall have the right to adjust the invalid/illegal and unenforceable provision(s) with the prevailing laws and regulations and/or government policies so that it can be implemented by the Parties.

37 APPLICABLE LAWS AND JURISDICTIONS

These Terms and Conditions shall be subject to and construed in all respects in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Indonesia but in enforcing these Terms and Conditions the Bank shall be free to commence or take any action or claim or anything against the Customer in the District Court of South Jakarta, Indonesia without limiting the Bank's right to pursue claims in courts and other jurisdictions.

38 GRANTING OF POWER OF ATTORNEY

All powers of attorney granted by the Customer to the Bank in accordance with these Terms and Conditions:

- (a) shall be irrevocable;
- (b) shall allow full rights of substitution;
- (c) shall authorize full representation by the Client, anywhere and against anyone, in all matters and actions with respect to matters connected with this power of attorney.

The Customer authorizes the Bank to disclose any information that has been obtained by the Bank about the Customer, the Customer's business activities, accounts and/or the Customer's business/transaction relationship(s) with the Bank, including but not limited to details of the Customer's facilities and transactions conducted with the Bank, in its capacity as banker of the Customer or in any other capacity for operational purposes and/or compliance with certain regulatory requirements, to (i) the head office and other branch offices of the Bank and other parties related to the Bank, (ii) the Bank's agents/correspondents, (iii) guarantors, (iv) lawyers, (v) professional consultants and service providers of the Bank who are bound by confidentiality obligations with the Bank.

The granting of power of attorney in these Terms and Conditions shall be an important and inseparable part hereof. The Customer agrees that the power of attorney granted by the Customer in these Terms and Conditions will not be revoked or terminated during the business relationship between the Customer and the Bank or for any reason, including but not limited to the statements in Articles 1813, 1814 and 1816 of the Indonesian Civil Code.

39 RECORDING

- 39.1 In the event that the Customer agrees to be offered Products and/or Services through the Customer's personal means of communication, the Bank shall have the right to document the recording of the Product and/or Service offering using sound and/or video.
- 39.2 Recording for Product and/or Service offerings as referred to in paragraph 39.1 above shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of the applicable laws and regulations.
- 39.3 In the event that the Customer uses the Product and/or Service, then if necessary the Customer can request the Bank to be given access to the results or copies of the sound and/or video recordings.

40 CUSTOMER CONSENT

- 40.1 The Customer grants consent and authority to the Bank for:
- a. utilizing data within the Financial Information Service System (SLIK) and/or other service systems serving similar purposes as established by applicable regulations.
 - b. disclosing Customer's data/information to third-party engaged with the Bank for the purpose of processing products and/or services and other necessary matters related to the products and/or services to be acquired or already acquired by the Customer, including document delivery and billing.
- 40.2 In the event that there is a use of data, information and statement belonging to third parties submitted by the Customer to the Bank, the Customer states that the Customer has obtained approval from any third party for the use of such data, information and statement, and therefore the Bank is released from any prosecutions, claims, lawsuits and/or responsibilities in any form whatsoever from both the Customer and third parties arising in the future in connection with the use of data, information and statement that has obtained such written approval by the Bank.
- 40.3 The approval as referred to in this provision can be changed or withdrawn by the Customer by submitting a written request to the Bank in accordance with the applicable procedures at the Bank.

41 SAFE DEPOSIT BOX (SDB) FACILITY

1. Rental Period, Rental Price and Security Deposit.
 - (i) The Safe Deposit Box (SDB) rental period shall be valid for 1 (one) year as of the date the Customer (a) submits an application for the use of SDB facility to the Bank, (b) pays a security deposit ("Security Deposit"), and (c) pays the SDB rental price in the amount as informed by the Bank ("Rental Price").
 - (ii) The Customer agrees that during the rental period, the Customer will be charged the Rental Price, Security Deposit and late fees (if any) in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bank. The Customer also agrees that the Bank shall have the right to review and/or make changes to the Rental Price and/or Security Deposit and/or late fees with prior notice through the Bank's office or other media determined by the Bank with due observance of the prevailing laws and regulations.
 - (iii) The Customer agrees that the Bank will block the Security Deposit during the rental period to secure the repayment of the Customer's outstanding obligations in the future. The blocking of the Security Deposit will be revoked by the Bank when or after the Customer completes all obligations and/or other costs (if any) to the Bank, including and not limited to returning the SDB key to the Bank intact and without defects. If the SDB key is lost or damaged due to the Customer's negligence, the Customer agrees that the Bank shall have the right and authority to calculate the Security Deposit as the cost of replacing the SDB key and opening/dismantling the SDB. If the cost of replacing the SDB key and opening/dismantling the SDB exceeds the Security Deposit, the Bank will debit the Account to account for the shortfall.
 - (iv) In the event that the Customer extends the SDB rental period, the Rental Price including the key guarantee (if there is a change) for the next rental period must be paid in advance at the time of renewal and the Customer authorizes the Bank to debit the Customer's Account in the amount of the Rental Price.

- (v) Payment of the Rent that has been paid cannot be recalled by the Customer for any reason whatsoever. Unless the SDB facility is canceled by the Bank, the Bank will refund the Rent for the lease period that has not been enjoyed by the Customer on a pro-rata basis.
- (vi) The SDB key will be submitted to the Customer by the Bank after the conditions as referred to in point 1 (i) above have been fulfilled.

2. Regulations for the Rental and Use of Safe Deposit Boxes.

The Customer agrees and warrants the following:

- i. Individual customers and business entities can open SDB by filling out the opening form provided by the Bank.
- ii. For the purpose of identification and verification before providing banking services, the Customer agrees that the Bank shall have the right to conduct a Know Your Customer process at the time of opening a Product/Service at the Bank, both for the Customer and the Customer's attorney.
- iii. In order to manage, process and follow up instructions, requests and/or transactions made by the Customer, whether through the Bank's office or other channels owned by the Bank, the Customer can refer to the provisions contained in Article 40.1. b above.
- iv. SDB can only be opened with 2 (two) different types of SDB keys, namely 1 (one) type of SDB sub-key held by the Customer and 1 (one) type of master key held by the Bank. The Customer must keep the SDB key that has been handed over by the Bank to the Customer from being damaged, lost and/or misused by other parties.
- v. It is prohibited from duplicating SDB keys, either by oneself or with the help of other parties other than the Bank.
- vi. The storage of items into the SDB or the retrieval of items from the SDB can be done on every Business Day during the Bank's working hours or on other days/hours which will be determined later by the Bank, provided that the duration of each use of the SDB is a maximum of 15 (fifteen) minutes.
- vii. only the Customer as the tenant and/or his/her attorney or legal heirs of the Customer with the provision that the number of parties who can enter the vault is a maximum of 2 (two) people.
- viii. will not be used to store objects that are prohibited by laws and regulations/government regulations of the Republic of Indonesia and objects that are suspected of endangering/damaging SDB, buildings and other objects in the vicinity.
- ix. the Customer shall be fully responsible for the use of the SDB that has been rented, and releases the Bank against all losses as a result of loss of items stored, changes in quality, defects, loss, damage or other things that cause changes in the form or economic value of the items or the loss of these items, including losses as a result of dismantling the SDB.
- x. the Customer will not re-lease, transfer, sell or mortgage SDB or carry out other things that cause the transfer of control or rights to use SDB to any other party.

3. Extension of Lease Period and Late Penalty

- i. In the event that the Lease period has expired and the Bank does not receive a termination notice from the Customer, the lease period will be automatically extended for a period of 1 (one) year and the Bank will debit the Account to pay the money for the extension of the lease period.
- ii. If the funds in the Customer's Account are insufficient to pay the money for the extension of the lease period in accordance with the provisions of point (i) above, the Bank will charge the Customer a late payment penalty for the extension of the lease period ("Late Penalty") in accordance with the provisions applicable to the Bank. Late Penalty is calculated from the date of the extension of the lease period until the payment is received by the Bank through debiting the Customer's Account in the amount of the money for the extension of the lease period and Late Penalty in full. Therefore, the Customer authorizes the Bank to make the debit as referred to above.

- iii. In the event of an automatic extension of the lease period and late payment of the extension of the lease period as referred to above, the Bank will send the Customer a notice (hereinafter referred to as the "Notice") with the following mechanism:
 - a. The Bank will send the 1st Notice in the event that the Customer has not paid the money for the extension of the rental period and/or Late Penalty (including other Costs in accordance with the provisions applicable to the Bank) within 30 (thirty) calendar days from the date of expiration of the rental period or on other date which will be determined by the Bank.
 - b. The Bank will send the 2nd Notice in the event that the Customer has not paid the rent extension fee and/or Late Penalty (including other Costs in accordance with the provisions applicable to the Bank) within 30 (thirty) calendar days starting D+1 from the date of issuance of the 1st Notice or on other date which will be determined by the Bank.
 - c. The Bank will send the 3rd Notice in the event that the Customer has not paid the money for the extension of the rental period and/or Late Penalty (including other Costs in accordance with the provisions applicable to the Bank) within 30 (thirty) calendar days starting D+1 from the date of issuance of the 2nd Notice or on other date which will be determined by the Bank. Furthermore, the 3rd Notice shall also contain the Bank's warning to the Customer for the risk of SDB dismantling if the Customer has not/cannot settle his/her obligations within the specified time.
- iv. The Customer or his/her attorney or legal heir of the Customer is prohibited from entering the SDB vault to use the SDB prior to the payment of the rental period extension fee and/or Late Penalty.
- v. In the event that, within 30 (thirty) calendar days starting from the date of issuance of the 3rd Notice, The Customer has not paid the money for the extension of the rental period and/or late fee (including other costs in accordance with the provisions applicable to the Bank), The Bank shall have the right to undertake remedial actions, including but not limited to dismantle the SDB with all costs and risks arising therefrom shall be the sole responsibility of the Customer.

 - c. If based on the Bank's assessment, the Customer violates the provisions agreed in the Terms and Conditions of this SDB Facility;
 - d. If the Customer does not collect the items and return the SDB key within a period of no later than 3 (three) months after the lease period ends or is terminated;
 - e. If the Customer has not/does not pay the payment obligation until the specified time limit;
 - f. The Customer cannot be contacted by the Bank or until a certain period of time determined by the Bank, and the Customer does not come to complete his/her obligations under the Terms and Conditions of this SDB Facility.
 - g. There is a relocation/ removal/ closure of SDB as referred to in paragraph 5.
- ii. In the event of SDB dismantling, the Customer agrees to release the Bank from all risks and lawsuits whatsoever from the Customer or from any other party, including to release the Bank from changes in the form/value/condition or loss of items/contents from the SDB.
- iii. In the event that the Bank dismantles the SDB, the dismantling can be witnessed by the Customer or his/her attorney or legal heirs of the Customer. In the event that the Customer or his/her attorney or legal heir of the Customer is not present, the Bank shall have the right to present a Notary as a witness for the dismantling of the SDB and the Notary service fee must be paid by the Customer or the legal heir of the Customer.

- iv. For the dismantling of the SDB as referred to in paragraph (iii) above, the Bank and Notary will make a Minutes of Dismantling stating the type and amount of items stored in the SDB. The Minutes of Dismantling shall be binding on the Bank and the Customer or his/her attorney or legal heirs of the Customer, in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations and shall serve as perfect evidence for use both within and outside the court.
- v. All costs arising from the dismantling of the SDB, including the cost of restoring the form and function of the SDB to its original condition, shall be the burden and responsibility of the Customer. If it is not repaid by the Customer within 30 (thirty) calendar days after the demolition is carried out, the Bank shall be given the power and authority by the Customer to debit the Security Deposit and/or debit the Account or other accounts on behalf of the Customer at the Bank for the repayment of these costs.
- vi. Especially for the demolition of SDB which is carried out because the Customer violates the Terms and Conditions of this SDB Facility, the Customer agrees that the Bank will only manage the items from the dismantling of the SDB for a period of 1 (one) year with an administration fee per month as notified by the Bank, starting from the date of dismantling of the SDB. If the items from the dismantling of SDB are not collected by the Customer or his/her attorney or legal heir within a period of 1 (one) year after the dismantling, the Customer hereby agrees to grant power and authority to the Bank to do the following actions:
 - a. For items of sale value, a public sale will be carried out through an auction in the presence of a Class II Auction Officer, where the proceeds from the sale of the auction are used to pay off all fees and penalties owed by the Customer, and the remaining will be credited to the Customer's Account or other accounts on behalf of the Customer at the Bank;
 - b. Items in the form of documents and / or other items that do not have a selling value will be sent to the Customer's correspondence address recorded in the Bank's system, which will use a registered delivery service.
- vii. If the debits made by the Bank are not sufficient to pay off the Customer's fees/obligations to the Bank, the Customer shall agree to grant power and authority to the Bank to sell and/or transfer part or all of the items stored in the SDB in any way and at any price deemed reasonable by the Bank, and the proceeds of the sale/transfer (after taking into account the costs) are used to pay/pay off any outstanding Customer fees/obligations to the Bank.
- viii. If the proceeds from the sale/transfer of items stored in the SDB carried out by the Bank as mentioned above exceed the value of the Customer's obligations to the Bank, the excess will be credited by the Bank to the Customer's Account or other accounts on behalf of the Customer with the Bank.
- ix. In the event that the items stored in the SDB are not sold/transferred or the proceeds of the sale/transfer are insufficient to pay off all costs/obligations of the Customer to the Bank, the Customer agrees that the shortage shall remain the responsibility of the Customer or his/her attorney or legal heirs of the Customer in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.
- x. In the event that the dismantling of the SDB is carried out by the Bank due to the Customer's violation of the provisions in the Terms and Conditions of this SDB Facility, then the lease period shall terminate by itself while still giving full rights to the Bank to collect and obtain repayment of any costs/obligations that have not been settled by the Customer to the Bank in accordance with the provisions stipulated in the Terms and Conditions of this SDB Facility.
- xi. The customer guarantees and releases the Bank from legal claims, compensation and other risks for the implementation of the SDB dismantling as stipulated in this point.

5. Relocation/Removal or Closing of SDBs

- i. In accordance with the provisions and policies of the Bank, in the event that there is a need to relocate/move or close a Bank branch office with SDB facilities, the Bank shall have the authority to relocate/move or close the SDB within the Bank branch.
- ii. The Bank will notify the Customer regarding the planned relocation/removal/closing of SDB at least 30 (thirty) Business Days prior to the date of the relocation/removal/closing. The notification

- will be delivered by the Bank to the Customer through communication media deemed good by the Bank while taking into account the applicable laws and regulations.
- iii. In the event that the Customer does not respond to the notification or submit its confirmation, the Bank considers the Customer to agree to such relocation/removal/closing.
 - iv. The process of relocation/removal/closing of SDB will be carried out by the Bank in accordance with the provisions related to SDB dismantling as stipulated in Article 4 above.
 - v. Regarding the relocation/removal/closing of the SDB which results in the Customer not continuing the SDB rental until the expiration of the SDB lease, the Bank will return the Rental Price for the rental period that has not been enjoyed by the Customer on a pro-rata basis.

6. Expiry of SDB Lease Period

- i. The SDB lease period will expire when:

 - c. There is an agreement between the Customer and the Bank to terminate the SDB lease period even though the lease period (including the extension thereof) has not yet matured;
 - d. There is a decision/determination from the court or other authorized agencies; or
 - e. There are certain reasons or considerations from the Bank that cause the Bank to decide to terminate the SDB lease period prematurely.
- ii. At the time of applying for termination of the lease period and closing of the SDB, the Customer agrees to the following matters:
 - a. The customer/ his/her attorney is obliged to empty/take all items stored in the SDB;
 - b. The customer/ his/her attorney must return the SDB key in an intact, complete and undamaged condition;
 - c. The Customer/ his/her attorney must settle all remaining obligations to the Bank (if any) and the Terms and Conditions of this SDB Facility will remain in effect until all such obligations have been fulfilled;
 - d. The Rental Price that has been paid to the Bank cannot be refunded.
- iii. The Customer hereby agrees to grant power and authority to the Bank to terminate the lease period unilaterally if the Customer violates the Terms and Conditions of this SDB Facility and/or if there are certain reasons/considerations from the Bank to make such termination. For the implementation of this provision, the Bank will notify the Customer.
- iv. In the event that the lease period terminates due to the reasons as referred to in paragraph 5 (i) a, b, c, and d above, the payment of the Lease Price is non-refundable. The refund and/or use of the Security Deposit (if any) due to such termination shall be made in accordance with the applicable provisions in the Terms and Conditions of this SDB Facility.
- v. In the event that the lease period terminates due to reasons as referred to in paragraph 5 (i) e above, the payment of the Lease Price may be returned proportionally based on the Bank's calculation. The refund and/or use of the Security Deposit (if any) due to such termination shall be made in accordance with the applicable provisions in the Terms and Conditions of this SDB Facility.
- vi. If the Customer dies (individual)/is dissolved (legal entity/business entity) before the lease period ends, then:
 - a. The Customer's heirs or successors-in-title and assigns must terminate the SDB facility by submitting the documents required by the Bank and fulfilling the obligations as stipulated in the Terms and Conditions of this SDB facility;
 - b. Based on the request of the Customer's heirs or their attorneys or successors-in-title and assigns, the Bank shall have the right to dismantle the SDB concerned and remove and relocate the items. The dismantling is carried out in the presence of a Notary as a witness and a Minutes of Dismantling will be made stating the contents thereof;

- c. The Bank shall have the right to store in any way and at a place deemed reasonable by the Bank for items that have been removed from the SDB dismantling process. The storage period of items that have been removed from the SDB is for 1 (one) year after the dismantling is carried out.
- vii. Until the end of the lease period or the expiration of the lease period for any reason, the Customer agrees to grant power and authority to the Bank to debit the Security Deposit and/or debit the Account (including accounts in foreign currencies which will be converted equivalently into Rupiah currency) for the payment of all fees/obligations that are still outstanding to the Bank.
- viii. If at the end of the rental period the Account balance is insufficient for debiting the fees as referred to in the Terms and Conditions of this SDB Facility, the Bank and the Customer agree to the provisions below:
 - a. The customer must immediately deposit funds at least equal to the outstanding fee(s) within a period of no later than 3 (three) months after the lease period ends;
 - b. If until the deadline specified in point a above the balance in the Account remains insufficient, the Customer is willing to be subject to a Late Penalty in accordance with the provisions applicable to the Bank, in which the Late Penalty is calculated from the date of expiration of the rental period until the funds in the Account are sufficient and the Bank is authorized by the Customer to debit the Account to pay off the Late Penalty;
 - c. In the event that the Customer has not paid off the money for the extension of the rental period and/or Late Penalty within 30 (thirty) calendar days from the date of the 3rd Notice, the Customer authorizes the Bank to open/dismantle the SDB as stipulated in the Terms and Conditions of SDB Facility.
- ix. Any obligations that have not been settled by the Customer at the end of the lease period will remain binding on the Customer. Therefore:
 - a. The Customer is subject to the provisions agreed in the Terms and Conditions of this SDB Facility until all obligations have been fulfilled by the Customer; and
 - b. For all obligations of the Customer that have not been resolved until the end of the rental period and the closing of the SDB, the Customer agrees that the Bank still shall have the right and authority to collect and request repayment from the Customer or his/her attorney or legal heirs of the Customer.
- x. In the event of termination of the rental period, the Customer and the Bank agree to waive the application of the provisions of Article 1266 of the Indonesian Civil Code so that no court judgment or decision is required prior to its entry into force.
